

Our 25th Season 1986 - 2010

Disney's Beauty and the Beast, JR

Oct 1 - 3, 2009

Langdale Auditorium

Step into the enchanted world of Broadway's modern classic! Based on the Academy-Award winning animated feature, the stage version of Disney's Beauty and the Beast, JR includes all the wonderful songs written by Alan Menken and the late Howard Ashman, along with new songs written by Mr Menken and Tim Rice. The brainy and beautiful Belle yearns to escape her provincial life . . . and her brute of a suitor, Gaston. However, Belle gets more adventure than she bargains for when she becomes a captive in the Beast's enchanted castle! Dancing flatware, menacing wolves, and singing furniture fill the stage with thrills in this beloved fairy tale about very different people finding strength in one another and learning how to love. This "tale as old as time" offers a great opportunity to bring the entire community together for family theater at its best.

It's A Wonderful Life - A Radio Show Dec 10 - 13, 2009 New Horizon Theatre

This holiday classic is lovingly performed as a period radio play complete with commercials and live sound effects. When his father dies, George postpones his dreams to manage the family business. When Uncle Billy accidentally misplaces company funds, George faces financial ruin and almost certain imprisonment. Seeing no way out, he runs to the bridge over the river, prepared to plunge to his death. Enter Clarence, George's lovable, bumbling guardian angel. He grants George one wish: to see what the world would be like if he had never been born. Suddenly Bedford Falls is a very unpleasant place; the bustling small town main street is lined with pool halls and saloons, none of his friends or family recognize him, not even his beloved Mary, who, in this world without him, is a prim spinster. Pursued by police, George returns to the bridge and begs to have his life back. Clarence grants it and George runs home to find his children, his wife, and a town that rallies to support him. Finally, George comes to realize . . . it truly is a wonderful life..

The Dixie Swim Club

Feb 18 - 20, 2010

New Horizon Theatre

Five southern women, whose friendships began many years ago on their college swim team, set aside a long weekend every August to recharge those relationships. Free from husbands, kids, and jobs, they meet at the same beach cottage on North Carolina's Outer Banks to catch up, laugh, and meddle in each other's lives. The Dixie Swim Club focuses on four of those weekends and spans a period of thirty-five years. As their lives unfold and the years ass, these women increasingly rely on one another, through advise and raucous repartee, to get through the challenges (men, sex, marriage, parenting, divorce, aging) that life flings at them. The Dixie Swim Club is the story of five unforgettable women - Sheree, the spunky team captain; Dinah, the wise-cracking overachiever; Lexie, pampered and outspoken; the self-deprecating and acerbic Vernadette; and sweet, eager-to-please Jeri Neal - a hilarious and touching comedy about friendships that last forever.

The Adventures of Tom Sawyer

Apr 22 - 24, 2010

Langdale Auditorium

Mark Twain's classic story comes to exuberant musical life in this Broadway adaptation of America's favorite book. The Adventures Of Tom Sawyer is the irresistible story of a fourteen-year-old boy growing up in the heartland of America. This Broadway musical version of Mark Twain's immortal novel is set in 1840 in St. Petersburg, Missouri, a bustling town on the banks of the Mississippi River. In the course of the story, Tom matches wits with his stern Aunt Polly, falls in love with the beautiful, feisty Becky Thatcher, and goes on the adventure of his life with Becky and that irresistible renegade, Huckleberry Finn. Along the way we meet a terrifying villain named Injun Joe, Tom's bratty half-brother Sid, and all the other boys and girls in the village - providing one scene-stealing children's role after the other.
